

An English-Royall Pedegree: Common to the two most Noble Princes

Lately Maried.

FRIDERICK, ELIZABETH, first Prince of the Imperiall, Infanta of Albion, Princesse Pa-blood fprung from glorious Charle-Magne, Count palatine of the Rhine, Duke of Bauier, Elector and Arch-Sewer of the holy Romaine Empire, & knight of the renowned order of the latine, Dutchesse of Bauier, the onely Daughter of our most gracious King lames and Qu one Anne.

Being both of them in one, and the fame degree of lineall descent from Emard the Third of this name, King of England, France and Ireland, the Author and fuff.

Knight of the renowned order of the Garter, and Vicar generall of the Empire.

Edward the Third the victorious King of England.

Ohn of Gant, Knight of the Garter, Earle of Richmond, Darbie, Leicester and Lincolne, Palatine of Chefter, Duke of Lancaster and Aquitaine, heigh Steward of England, g. cat Constable of France, and in the right of his second Wife, King of Castille and Leon, the Fourth Sonne of King quise Dorset, Lord high Chamber-laine of England, Knight of the Garter: Sonne to John of Gant, and brother to Herry the Fourth King of England.

Ane Beaufort, Daughter to the Earle-Marquise Iohn, maried to the most vertuous, valorous, and learned Prince, lames the First, King of Scotland.

Ames the Second, Sonne and heire of King lamer the First, of Scotland, and of Queene lane of England.

Ames the Third, Sonne and heire of 6 the most couragious, curteous, and affable Prince King James the Second.

Amerthe Fourth, Soune and heire of King lames the Third.

Ames the Fift, Knight of the renown-ed order of the Garter, and King of Scotland, the most worthy and vertuous Sonne of a most religious, vertuous, and worthy Father James the Fourth.

Mariefurnamed Clarabella, for her incomparable beautie and bountie, Queencheire of Scotland, Queene Dowig, r of France, and Princesse apparant of England, France, and Ireland, as being the great grand childe of the most prudent and putsant Prince Henry the Scauenth King of England, and the onely Daughter and heire of the most noble Bruanish Prince Lames the Fifth King of Scotland.

Harles-James furnamed the Concor-Cder Britaines King of Concord, the onely Sonne and heire of Queene Mary and of her fecond husband, the most comely and noble Prince Henry Lord Darley, Earle of Roffe, Duke of Albanie Knight of the renowned order of Saint Michaell, and King of Scotland; being ber Maiefties nearett and dearest cofin, and the great grand childe of the fore-faid King Hoars the Seauenth.

Lizabeth furnamed the Beloved, the onely Daughter of our most gracious King lames and queene Anne.

Ohn Beanfort Earle of Somerset, Mar- 3 PHilippe Daughter to Town of Gant, and Tile. 20 quise Dorset, Lord high Chamber- 3 Henry the Fourth King of England, and to John Earle of Sommer 't Marquise Dorset maried to John King of Portugall.

Edward King of Portugall, Sonne to King John, by his wife Queene Phillippe of Lancaster.

Eonora Daughter to King Edward of Portugall Longitude to the most noble and vertuous Prince Friderick the Third, Arch-Duke of Auftria and Em-

Vnegund Daughter of Friderick the Emperour. and Leonora, and Sifter of the glorious Emperour Maximilian the First, maried to Albers the Fourth, Duke of Bauier.

Stanne Daughter to the right noble, learned, & Sprudent Prince Albert the Fourth, by his Wite Cunegund of Austria, maried to the right generous Prince Casimme Marquise of Brandeburg & Duke of Pomerane.

Mare Dau therto Calmere Marquis of Bran-deburg by his Wife Sufanne of Bamer, maried to Friderick the Third of this name, Prince Palatine Elector and Arch-Sewer of the holy Romaine Empire, Duke of Baulere, Earle of Obrink Simmer and Spanheim, who was a Prince peaceable and learned and a fingular Patron to Schollers; he likewife planted the reformed Religion in his Citie of Heidelberg.

Odmick the Fift Elector of this Name, Prince
Palatine and Duke of Bauier, and Bipoatz, Earle of Simmer and Spanheim, Sonne to Fridericke the Third, a Prince godly and vertuous, care'ull to establish instice Policie and peace in his Princedome he enriched the tamous Colledge of Heidelberg with new reuenues.

FRiderick the fourth of this Name, Prince Palatine, Elector, and Arch-sewer of the facted Romaine Empire, Duke of Bauter Sonne to Laboret the Fift aforefaid; he was a Prince endued with many heroicall parts, a louer of learning, and of the learned, the most magnificent house-keeper of all the Germaine Princes. he was exceeding officious to our gracious Soueraigne King lames, and very kinde and eutreous, both to English and S. ottish Riderick the rift of this Name, the inheritor of his noble fathers princele dignitie, vertue and worth, Sonne in law to our mest gracieus King James and queene Anne.

Being both of them almost in one and thesame degree of lineall descent (as I can shew) from 25. Emperours of Romaines Greeks and Germaines, and from 30 Kings of deuers Kingdomes and Countries.

This Royall and Princels Pedegree, why the Author dedicated to the right noble Lady, Flizabeth Viconntesse Hadington, We are the miest valorous reserver of our King, John Lord Rainley. Viconntesses Hadington.

Imprinted at London for Henry Geffon.

lanes Maryell